CONTENTS.

PART I.

HISTORICAL.

CHAP. I.

INTRODUCTORY.

PAGE.

General Aspect of the Times. Commercial Distress, and its Causes. Sources of Public Discontent. Views of the Democratic Writers. Radical Reform. Parallel between the British Constitution at the time of the Revolution, and at present. Royal Authority. Parliamentary Representation, - - - - 3

CHAP. II.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

Speech of the Prince Regent. Attack on his Royal Highness. Proceedings in Parliament upon this subject. Debates on the Address in the House of Lords. In the House of Commons, - - - - - - 20

CHAP. III.

MEASURES RELATIVE TO PUBLIC DISTURBANCES.

Prince Regent's Message to the two Houses of Parliament. Committees of Secrecy appointed. Their Report. Debate in the Lords on the Bill for the Suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act. In the Commons on the Bill against Seditious Meetings, and two others. On the Habeas Corpus. These Bills pass the two Houses, - 44

CHAP. IV.

THE SAME SUBJECT RENEWED.

Disturbances at Manchester. Rising in Derbyshire. Message from the Prince Regent. Appointment and Report of Secret Committees. Renewed Suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act. On the Employment of Spies, - - - - - 66

CHAP. V.

FINANCE.

PAGE.

Lord Castlereagh's Statement of proposed Reductions, and Motion for a Committee of Inquiry. First Report of the Committee. Second Report. The Budget. Debate on the War Salary of the Secretaries to the Admiralty—On the Number of Admiralty Lords—On the Office of Third Secretary of State—On Mr Canning's Mission to Lisbon—On Mr Harris's Appointment, - - - - - - 73

CHAP. VI.

POOR LAWS—PUBLIC DISTRESS.

General Observations on the Poor Laws—Remedies suggested. Mr Curwen's Motion. Committee appointed—Report—Debate upon it. Mr Brougham's Motion on the Distresses of the Country. Mr Vansittart's Plan for the Relief of the Labouring Classes, - - - - - - - - 90

CHAP. VII.

TREATMENT OF BUONAPARTE.

General Observations. Motion by Lord Holland. Explanation by Earl Bathurst. Motion negatived, - - - - - - - - - - - - 109

CHAP. VIII.

CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTIONS.

The Catholic Question—In the Commons—In the Lords. Sir Francis Burdett's Motion for Parliamentary Reform, - - - - - - - - - 114

CHAP. IX.

MISCELLANEOUS PARLIAMENTARY TRANSACTIONS.

Mr Abbot resigns the office of Speaker—Created Lord Colchester, with a Pension. Mr Sutton Elected. Debate on Lord Sidmouth's Circular Letter. Mr Wilberforce's Motion relative to the Slave Trade. Mr Lyttleton on the Lottery. Mr Bennet on the Report of the Police Committee. The Academical Society. Mr Brougham's Motion on the State of the Nation. Prorogation of Parliament, - - - - - 136

CHAP. X.

SCOTLAND.

General View of the Political State of Scotland. The Scottish Bar. Ascendency of the Whigs. State Trials. Debates in Parliament on the subject. Burgh Reform—Montrose—Aberdeen—Dundee. Ferment in the Nation. Meetings at Edinburgh. Attempts to reduce the Charter of that City. - - - - - - - - 147

CHAP. XI.

ROYAL FAMILY.

The Princess Charlotte—Her Illness, and Death. Grief of the Nation. The King—Queen—Princess of Wales, - - - - - - 160

CHAP. XII

FRANCE.

PAGE.

Situation of France. Army of Occupation partly removed. Proceedings of the Chambers relative to the law of Election; to Personal Liberty; to the Press. The Budget. Disturbances occasioned by the Tragedy of Germanicus. Plot against the Princes. Commotions in the Provinces. Improved state of France, - - - 163

CHAP. XIII.

THE REST OF EUROPE.

On the present Political state of Europe.—Spain. Insurrections in Valencia. Catalonia. Disturbances at Cadiz. Finance. Abolition of the Slave Trade.—Conspiracy in Portugal.—Wirtemberg. Discussions between the King and the States.—Prussia. Petition of the Germans.—Sweden. Conspiracy against the King.—Naples.—Turkey, - - - - - - - 171

CHAP. XIV.

AMERICA.

Operations in the Caraccas—of Bolivar—of General Piar. Battles fought with Morillo. Naval force of the Patriots. Successful Invasion of the Island of Margaritta by Morillo. War in the Caraccas indecisive. Landing of Mina at Soto la Marina. Successes. Opposed by Marshal Linan, who takes Fort Sombrero. Siege of Los Remedios by the Royal Troops. Mina taken and executed. Los Remedios taken. Independent Government of Buenos Ayres. Successes of San Martin in Chili. Amelia Island taken by M'Gregor. Revolution in Pernambucco—Suppressed, - 185

CHAP. XV.

INDIA.

Pindaree War. Origin of the Pindarees. Defensive Plans adopted—Inefficient. Offensive War undertaken. Advance of the British Armies. War with the Peishwa—His Defeat and Surrender. War with the Rajah of Nagpoor. Critical Position of the British. Finally Repulse the Enemy. Surrender of the Rajah. Subsequent Battle and Defeat of his Army. War terminated. Advance of the British against the Pindarees. War with Holkar. His Defeat. War concluded by a Treaty. Destruction of the Pindarees. Objects of the war, - - - - - 196

PART II.

LITERARY AND MISCELLANEOUS.

CHAP. I.

BIOGRAPHY—POLITICAL.

Mr Ponsonby. Mr Horner. Mr Henry Erskine. Mr Curran. Admiral Duckworth. Duke of Northumberland. Duke of Marlborough. Marshal Massena. Cardinal Maury. Kosciusko, - - - - 207

CHAP. II.

BIOGRAPHY.—LITERARY.

PAGE

Mr Edgeworth. Dr William Thomson. Mr David Williams. Mr Glenie. Mr Beloe. Dr Monro. Mad. Stael. Werner. Delametherie. Messier. Rochon. Dr Dwight, - - - - - - - - 231

CHAP. III.

VIEW OF IMPROVEMENTS IN SCIENCE DURING THE YEAR.

Davy's Safety Lamp, and Researches on Flame. Artificial Freezing of Water. Preservation of Volatile and Deliquescent Substances. The Oxy-Hydrogen Blow-Pipe. Security of Steam-Boats. Geography of Plants, - - - - - 256

CHAP. IV.

VIEW OF GEOGRAPHICAL DISCOVERIES, AND OBSERVATIONS OF TRAVELLERS DURING THE YEAR.

Present State of Discovery. Regions yet Unexplored.—AFRICA. Expedition to the Congo. Description of this part of Africa. Expedition to the Niger. Mission to Ashantee. Legh's Travels in Nubia. Excavated Temples. Notices from Abyssinia.—ASIA. Embassy to China. Coast of Corea. The Loochoo Islands. Estimate of the Height of the Himalaya Mountains. Moorcroft's Journey into Thibet.—SOUTH SEA. Expedition into the Interior of New Holland. Complete Examination of its Coasts. Van Diemen's Land. Mission to New Zealand. Revolution in Otaheite. Mariner's Account of the Tonga Islands.—THE NORTH SEA. Scoresby's Description of the Polar Ice, and Plan of an Expedition to the Pole, - - - 284

OCCASIONAL AND FUGITIVE POETRY.

Monody on the Princess Charlotte, by Thomas Campbell, Esq. - - 345
On the same Subject, - - - - - - 346
Farewell Address, Spoken by Mr Kemble to the Edinburgh Theatre, the 29th March, 1817. Written by Sir Walter Scott, Bart. - - - 348
Ode by Thomas Campbell, Esq. recited after the Dinner on occasion of Mr Kemble's retirement from the stage, - - - - - - 349
To the Spirit of Kosciusko, - - - - - - - - 352
On the late Mr Horner, - - - - - - - - ib.
Sonnet on receiving the "Scenes of Infancy" from a Lady, - - 354
Verses recited at the Anniversary of Burns, 25th January, 1817, - - - ib.
Verses on Burns's Punch-Bowl. Written extempore, at the house of R— B—, Esq. by one of the Gentlemen present, when BURNS'S Punch-Bowl (after dinner) was introduced, full primed with excellent whisky-toddy, - - - - 356
To George Chalmers, Esq., the possessor of a Table and Wine-Glasses which belonged to Thomson the Poet. By John Taylor, Esq. - - - 357
The Moslem Bridal Song. From the Italian, - - - - 358
An Original Poem by Lord Byron, - - - - 359

PAGE.
Epistle to the Emperor of China. By Dr John Wolcot, (Olim Peter Pindar, Esq.) 360
Epilogue to Touchstone. Spoken by Mrs Alsop, 362
The Legend of Dunbar, 363
Sonnet to ———, 367
Stanzas, ib.
Carlisle Yetts, 368
The Bard's Farewell to his Broken Lute, 369
The Friends' Farewell, 370
Crookbarrowhill, Worcestershire, accounted the largest Barrow in England, 371
The Country Surgeon, 372
Elegy to the Memory of John Lowe, 373
To the Primrose. By John Mayne, 374
Sonnet. By James Edmeston, 375
Sonnet, on Viewing the Grave of Churchill, at Dover. By Arthur Brooke, ib.

APPENDIX.

I.—TRIALS AND LAW PROCEEDINGS.

STATE TRIALS.

Cashman, Hooper, and others, 3
James Watson, the Elder, 6
Jeremiah Brandreth, 16
Alexander M'Laren and Thomas Baird, 24
Neil Douglas, 30
Andrew Mackinlay, 33

TRIALS FOR LIBEL.

Thomas Jonathan Wooler, 37
James Williams, 40
William Hone,—1st. 41
———2d. 48
———3d. 52

CRIMINAL TRIALS.

The Luddites at Leicester, 54
Roger O'Connor, 57
The Ashcrofts, &c. 59

PROSECUTIONS AND MISCELLANEOUS CASES.

Mr Southey, for Suppression of Wat Tyler.—Sir M. R. Burgoyne, for Non-Attendance at Public Worship.—Mr Scarlett, for Defamation at the Bar, &c. &c. 64

II.—PROCEEDINGS OF PUBLIC SOCIETIES.

The Royal Society of London, 90
———of Edinburgh, 97

PAGE.
The Linnæan Society, 101
——Wernerian Society, 105
——National Society for Education of the Poor, 106
——Hibernian Society, 107
——Highland Society of Scotland, 109
——Caledonian Horticultural Society, 114

III.—REPORTS, &c. ON THE DIFFERENT BRANCHES OF PUBLIC ECONOMY.

Agricultural, 117
Commercial, 121
Medical, 124
Ecclesiastical, 129
On Public Works, and Local Improvements, 135
Emigration, 138

IV.—CHRONICLE OF MISCELLANEOUS OCCURRENCES, 143

V.—PUBLIC AND PARLIAMENTARY PAPERS.

Income and Expenditure for the Year 1816, 196
General View of the British Woollen Trade, 200
——————of the British Cotton Trade, 202
——————of the British Linen Trade, 204
——————of the British Silk Trade, 206
First Report from Select Committee on Finance, 208
Account of all Offices in the Colonies, with their Salary and Emoluments, 217
Account of all Missions and Consulships at Foreign Courts and Ports, 224
Report of the Secret Committee of the House of Lords, 226
General View of the Church of England, in regard to Residence and Non-Residence, 232
Proposals and Regulations relative to the Royal Navy, made by the Board of Admiralty, 1st January, 1817, 234
Letter addressed, by order of Napoleon, from General Count Montholon, to Sir Hudson Lowe, 254

VI.—LISTS, &c.

New Publications for 1817, 256
Patents for New Inventions, 277
Acts of the British Legislature, 284
The London General Bill of Mortality, 297
Births, Marriages, and Deaths, 298
INDEX, 319